FRY BROS

At Fry Bros, we believe that each life is unique and should be valued, and that your funeral should be a reflection of you. At Fry Bros, we support and guide families through this significant time and provide a service that is both meaningful and positive.

Many of us feel a bit overwhelmed at the thought of organising our own farewell, but by planning ahead now you will be relieving your family of making stressful decisions at a significant time in the future.

When a death occurs, there is a legal responsibility to register the death with the Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages. The information in this booklet is what is required and can be completed in advance.
