An honest man here lies at rest,

The friend of man, the friend of truth,

The friend of age, and guide of youth:

Few hearts like his, with virtue warm'd,

Few heads with knowledge so inform'd;

If there's another world, he lives in bliss;

If there is none, he made the best of this.

REMEMBERING JOHN

"True Blue" by John Williamson

SCRIPTURE READING - Psalm 23

Hear the word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

The Lord is my shenherd: therefore can I lack nothing. He will make me lie down in green pastures: and lead me beside still waters. and lead me beside still waters.

He will refresh my soul:
and guide me in right pathways for his name's sake.
Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for you are with me, your rod and your staff comfort me.
You spread a table before me in the face of those who trouble me: you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full. and my cup shall be full.

Surely your goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the days of my life:
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth And saw your tired face. He put his arms around you And lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering He knew you were in pain. He knew that you would never Get well on earth again. He saw the road was getting rough And the hills were hard to climb. So he closed your weary evelids And whispered, 'Peace be thine'. It broke our hearts to lose you But you didn't go alone, For part of us went with you The day God called you home.

You Meant So Much

You meant so much to all of us You were special and that's no lie You brightened up the darkest day And the cloudiest sky

Your smile alone warmed hearts Your laugh was like music to hear I would give absolutely anything To have you well and standing near

Not a second passes When you're not on our minds Your love we will never forget The hurt will ease in time

Many tears I have seen and cried They have all poured out like rain I know that you are happy now And no longer in any pain.

A LIFE WELL LIVED

We gather here to say goodbye, to a man whose love reached far and wide. Royce James Eastment, strong and true ... a father, a pop, in all he'd do.

> His children felt his guiding hand, his grandkids grew beneath his stand, and now with great-grandkids near, his legacy is crystal clear.

With many friends who knew him well, in every heart, his kindness fell. He shared his wisdom, spread his cheer, with everyone who held him dear.

He walked this earth with steady grace, left a mark we can't erase. In laughter, love and quiet care, he showed us all how much he'd share.

Through every story, every smile, he made this life a little more worthwhile. Though now he's gone, his light will stay, in each of us, in every way.

So, as we part and say goodbye, let's not forget the reasons why. His family, friends, and love so wide will carry him forever by their side.

Processional Hymn: "Amazing Grace"

Amazing Grace how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost but now am found, Was blind but now I see.

As grace first taught my heart to fear So grace my fears relieved; How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come:
God's grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home. The Lord has promised good to me,

His word my hope secures, He will my shield and portion be As long as life endures.

Hymn: "How Great Thou Art"

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder Consider all the works thy hand has made, I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed:

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee, How great thou art, how great thou art! Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee, How great thou art, how great thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander, And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees: When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze: Then sings my soul.....

But when I think that God, his Son not sparing, Sent him to die - I scarce can take it in That on the cross, our burden gladly bearing, He bled and died to take away our sin: Then sings my soul...

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation, And take me home -what joy shall fill my heart! Then shall I bow in humble adoration, And there proclaim: My God how great thou art! Then sings my soul....

Farewell and Blessing

Recessional Hymn: Abide With Me

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide: The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide: When other helpers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away. Change and decay in all around I see: O though who changest not, abide with me.

I need they presence every passing hour, What but they grace can foil the tempter's power? Who like thyself my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless; Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness. Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory? I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes; Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies: Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee; In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

The Parting Glass

Oh all the time that c'er I spent, I spent it in good company; And any harm that c'er I've done, I trust it was to none but me; May those I've loved through all the years Have memories now they'll c'er recall; So fill me to the parting glass, Goodnight, and joy be with you all.

Oh all the comrades that e'er I had, Are sorry for my going away; And all the loved ones that e'er I had Would wish me one more day to stay. But since it falls unto my lot That I should leave and you should not, I'll gently rise and I'll softly call Goodnight, and joy be with you all.

Of all good times that e'er we shared, Heave to you fond memory; And for all the friendship that e'er we had I ask you to remember me; And when you sit and stories tell, I'll be with you and help recall; So fill to me the parting glass, God bless, and joy be with you all. Order of Service

"Beyond the Sunset" by Daniel O'Donnell

SCRIPTURE READING - Luke 5: 1-11 read by Doug

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowsk from the boat. When he had flinished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caughts so many fish that their nets were beginning to burst. So they signalled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus's knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were astounded at the catch of fish that they had taken, and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon. 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed thin

THANK YOU FOR YOUR LOVE AND SUPPORT.

Consolation

Though he, that ever kind and true,

Kept stoutly step by step with you, Your whole long, gusty lifetime through, Be gone a while before, Be now a moment gone before, Yet, doubt not, soon the seasons shall restore Your friend to you. He has but turned the corner - still He pushes on with right good will, Through mire and marsh, by heugh and hill, That self-same arduous way -That self-same upland, hopeful way. That you and he through many a doubtful day Attempted still. He is not dead this friend - not dead But in the nath we mortals tread Got some few trifling steps ghead And negrer to the end-So that you too once past the bend Shall meet again, as face to face, this friend You fancy dead. Push gaily on, strong heart! The while You travel forward mile by mile, He loiters with a backward smile Till you can overtake, And strains his eyes to search his wake, Or whistling, as he sees you through the brake,
